Introduction

CalFile was developed in 2003, to provide taxpayers with a free, secure, and direct online application to e-file their state income tax return. Per survey responses, the most common reasons for using CalFile are:

- It's fast.
- It's free.
- It's convenient.

CalFile is a quick online process, which takes about 15-30 minutes to complete. CalFile eases the filing burden for taxpayers by guiding them through an easy question and answer process. To access CalFile, the taxpayer only needs to provide SSN and last name. Taxpayers can e-file their tax return using CalFile from January 3, 2012, through October 15, 2012.

CalFile has grown in popularity by over 135 percent since its first full filing season. In 2004, nearly 110,000 CalFile returns were filed, and in 2011, over 258,000 CalFile returns were filed. CalFile is available to more than 6 million taxpayers.

For more information, go to ftb.ca.gov and search for CalFile.

FAQs

How much do taxpayers pay to use CalFile?

Nothing. CalFile is free e-file for all taxpayers who qualify to use it.

Do taxpayers need to know what form to use?

Taxpayers do not need to know which form to use with CalFile; they only need to verify that they meet the CalFile qualifications. CalFile guides taxpayers to answer basic questions and CalFile automatically completes their state tax return. For more information, refer to CalFile qualifications.

What software is required to use CalFile?

- Adobe Reader to view and print the return.
They can download the latest version of Adobe Reader for free from Adobe.
- A compatible browser and operating system.

If taxpayers owe money can they use CalFile?

Yes. Taxpayers who use CalFile and owe money can choose to send the payment electronically with their return. They can e-file their return now and schedule their electronic payment for a later date. The taxpayer can also visit our website and use Web Pay or pay by check or credit card. Taxpayers can review all of these options on the Refund or Payments page within CalFile.

Can taxpayers use CalFile if their last name changed in 2011?

Yes. However, if a taxpayer's last name changed in 2011, they need to enter the last name they used on their 2010 tax return to access CalFile. Then they need to enter their new last name on the Name and Address page in CalFile.

Can first-time filers use CalFile?

Yes. However, taxpayers who have not previously filed a California tax return need to call our Taxpayer Services Center. When they call, they need to provide either their California driver license or California identification number.
